2. LOW-COST EQUIPMENT RENTAL STRATEGIES

- Negotiate aggressively: Rental prices change frequently. Compare companies and negotiate daily, weekly, and monthly rates.

- Request free extras: Ask for complimentary delivery, pickup, attachments, and additional rental time.
- Facebook Marketplace: Small excavators, Bobcats, skid steers, and compact equipment may rent for approximately half the cost of major rental companies.
- Build relationships: Independent equipment owners can offer better pricing, flexible scheduling, easier delivery, and equipment suited to tight spaces.
- Compare total costs: Include rental fees, transportation, attachments, fuel, and insurance when comparing quotes.

3. DIRT SOURCING & EXPORTING

- DirtMatch.com: Free basic listings connect projects exporting dirt with projects needing fill.
- Target hauling price: $350–$550 per load.
- Free clean dirt: $0 material cost when sourced from another project's excavation. The exporting project may benefit by avoiding disposal fees.
- Save on transportation: Find nearby projects to reduce hauling distances and costs.
- Soils engineer approval: All imported dirt must be approved by the project's soils engineer, including required testing, before placement.

6. 25th Street Recycling
   Los Angeles — 323-583-7913
7. United Rock Products
   Irwindale — 626-358-4558
8. Construction & Demolition Recycling
   South Gate — 323-357-6900

CONCRETE DISPOSAL & RECYCLING

- Target hauling/recycling cost: Approximately $650 per 10 cubic yards.

- Separate materials: Keep clean concrete separate from dirt, asphalt, and mixed demolition debris.
- Recycle whenever possible: Concrete recycling can be cheaper than conventional landfill disposal.
- Confirm acceptance: Ask whether the facility accepts outside concrete, reinforced concrete, asphalt, or mixed loads.
- Compare fees: Check hauling charges and recycling facility tipping fees before scheduling.

5. JOB-SITE MATERIAL DELIVERY

- Uber / Uber Direct: Arrange eligible tools, parts, and supplies for direct job-site delivery.
- DoorDash: Order available hardware and construction supplies from participating stores.
- Retailers: Home Depot, Lowe's, Ace Hardware, and similar local suppliers.
- Common deliveries: Plumbing fittings, electrical supplies, fasteners, hand tools, small equipment, and emergency replacement parts.
- Benefit: Keep workers and machinery operating instead of losing time driving to supply stores.

6. GENERAL COST-SAVING RULES

- Always price-shop: Get competing quotes for equipment, dirt hauling, and concrete recycling.
- Negotiate the entire package: Rental rate, attachments, delivery, pickup, and rental duration.
- Use local suppliers: Shorter transportation distances generally reduce costs.
- Build repeat relationships: Reliable independent suppliers often provide better pricing and scheduling.
- Confirm pricing: Equipment rentals, hauling, and disposal rates fluctuate.
- Get written quotes: Confirm the final price, delivery arrangements, and included services before booking.
